Parent Newsletter June 2023

Dear families,

Summer is here! This week we will begin our summer activities. Each room will have a water play day, weather permitting. All children ages 2 and up will also have a movie day each week. Every Wednesday will be Wacky Wednesday in which we will have dress up days. This Wednesday, June 7, 2023 will be pajama day. Listed below are the schedules for water play days, movie days, and dress up days. Parents of school age and middle room children (4 year old PreK class), until further notice, these 2 classrooms will be combined and follow the school room summer program. This will mean that there will be no waterplay on Thursdays. If you are in need of a summer program, please feel free to obtain one from the front office.
